PEABODY, MASSACHUSETTS
PEABODY, MASS

to the Class of 2006

*You walked in with hope,
Expectations for fun
You never thought that high school would be done*

*You leave here now with something to lend
this chapter has closed,
it's come to an end*

*At times, it was rough project, essay, and a test
Other times you slacked off,
For just a little rest*

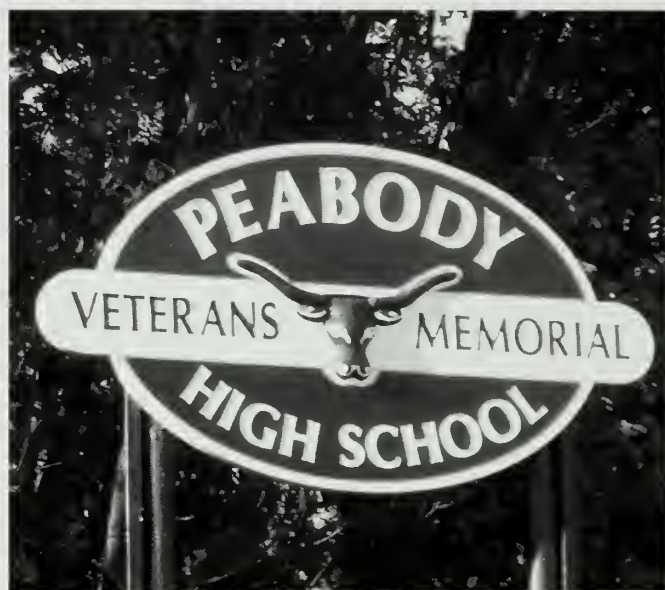

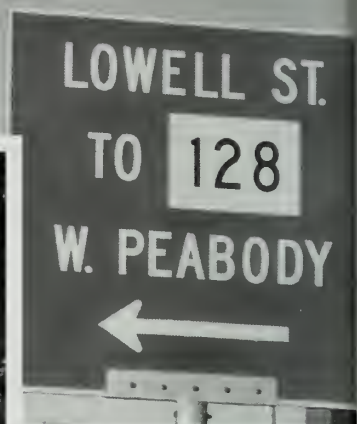

*Good luck in the future
travel the distance don't lay down for the slightest resistance*

*The many good times,
The few wasted days
All of the memories that are here to stay*

*You walked in with hope,
Expectations for fun
But never forget when high school was done*

*Maturity grew a little each year
it's now graduation,
the time for a tear*

*If these high school walls could talk, what would they have to say?
I'm sure they'd keep it to themselves cause, 06' has gone away.*

Congratulations to the Class of 2006 !

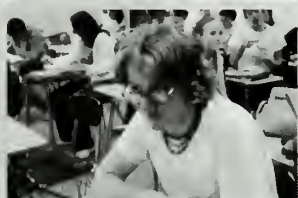

To the Class of 2006,

It is my hope that as you look back on your years here at Peabody Veterans Memorial High School you have many fond memories. You have certainly left your mark with a number of individual accomplishments. However, more impressive was the ability of the Class of 2006 to work as a collaborative unit on so many endeavors. Your Senior Helping Committee was impressive in numbers setting a model for other classes to emulate when it comes to working as a united group. As you move on, I hope that your experience at PVMHS serves you well. I expect to hear many great things as you move on to post-secondary life, whether it is college or technical school, the workforce, or the military. I wish you the best!

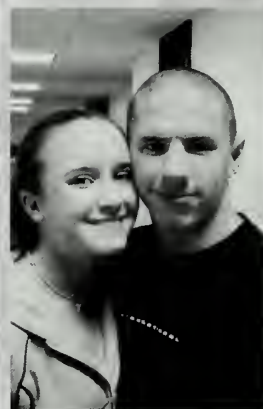

Sincerely,

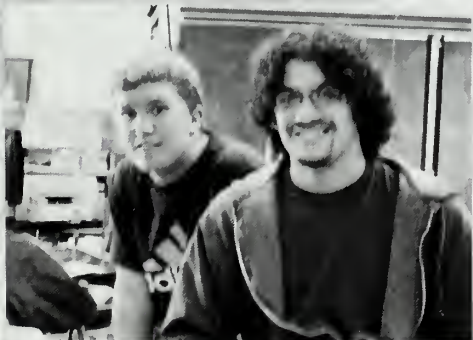

Patrick M. Larkin

Andrew Metropolis

The class of 2006 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Andrew Metropolis. He has inspired many students over the years he has taught. He is known for his ability to turn any class into an enjoyable experience. Even if he is not your teacher, he makes the effort to greet you with a smile and a pleasant hello. Mr. Metropolis is a great History teacher, but most importantly, a great "life" teacher. In his class we not only learn about history, but also his own personal life experiences. He has given us answers to all of our questions and helped us determine our future. Thank you for always being there for us. Your deeds have not gone unnoticed; as a teacher, and a friend you will remain in our hearts forever.

It seems like just yesterday that we ventured, with nervous anticipation, through the double doors of Peabody Veterans Memorial High School. Some had their maps, some had their backpacks, some had their bagged lunches, but most importantly, we had each other. Some turbulent times strengthened old bonds and created new ones, but despite the battle our extraordinary unity is something to be envied.

Freshman year brought with it a time for pursuing new experiences while still maintaining previous goals. We embarked on a journey categorized by new classes, teachers, work loads, and pressures. The Freshman Challenge was an interesting experience, to say the least. Between the guys in bikinis and "Party Boy," everyone had an unforgettable time. The athletic teams walked away with a prestigious Dalton Award, a status which was upheld in our sophomore year as well.

The year 2004 prepared us for the long haul. We began to feel comfortable in our environment, developing and maturing as young adults. The MCAS test, which was mandated as a graduation requirement for the first time, made everyone ponder what our next step would be. On top of it all, the Patriots won the Super Bowl and the Red Sox finally won the World Series.

Before we knew it, it was junior year and we were "upper classmen." Mrs. Gordon took over the role as class advisor when Mrs. Kostecke and Mr. Greehan had to relocate. Our fund-raising efforts skyrocketed, as did our drive to succeed both in and out of the classroom. Guidance counselors and teachers began to supply us with the means necessary to tackle the treacherous road ahead. Not only did they offer invaluable advice, but they became our mentors and friends as well. All of our hard work paid off when it came time for semi-formal and prom; everyone looked amazing and danced the night away. We started the college search and realized that the road would soon be ending.

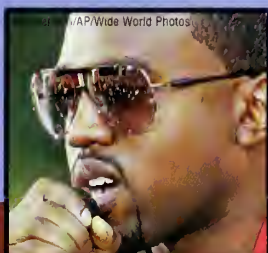

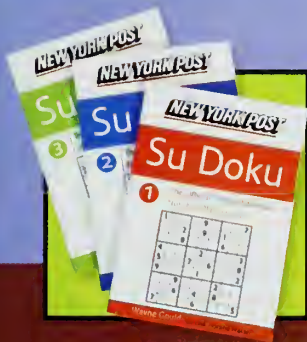

Now believe it or not, senior year has come and gone. We have completed the college process and have a good idea of where we are headed next year. Mrs. Henry stepped up to take the ever-changing position as class advisor when Mrs. Gordon accepted a job closer to home. With enthusiasm and persistence, we dominated Spirit Week, tripled our class treasury and had a lot of fun along the way. The semi at Danversport exceeded all our expectations, while prom at Park Plaza was simply enchanting. We summed up the year dressing in togas, cruising at midnight, getting hypnotized and rooting on the Red Sox, all in the company of cherished friendships we have nurtured throughout these last four years.

As Graduation Day approaches, reality begins to set in. Not only are we leaving the school, which has been our home for four years, but we are leaving the people who have become our family. As we move on, we must never forget everyone who has made such a lasting impression and had such a tremendous impact on our lives. Both as a whole and as individuals we have accomplished more than anyone ever expected, and we must take away and put to use everything we have gained from our experiences here at PVMHS.

One thing is for certain as we part ways, we sure did get our kicks in 2006!

WILMA

October 24, 2005

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

August

- 25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.
- 28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.
- 29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breached, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.
- 31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

- 1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.
- 2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.
- 4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.
- 6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.
- 9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.
- 12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.
- 14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.
- 15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.
- 20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.
- 22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.
